

Mark E. Lemons

Mark Lemons is a senior environmental specialist at the Pfizer manufacturing facility in Kalamazoo where his responsibilities include all aspects of air, waste and water management. Prior to Pfizer, Mark worked 11 years in California for Texaco Exploration and Production as well environmental consulting firms specializing in waste/water disposal, air testing/monitoring, habitat protection and permitting. Mark is a registered environmental professional and on the editorial advisory board of the "Hazardous Waste Consultant". He is a member of the government affairs committees at the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, Michigan Chemistry Council and Michigan Manufactures Association. Mark holds a BS in Environmental Sciences and Geography from Western Michigan University.